

Master Class

Research Methods in Hand Rehabilitation and Hand Surgery

One day seminar Friday August 17th, 2018
Erasmus Medical Centre, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

Master Class

Research Methods in Hand Rehabilitation and Hand Surgery

This one day course, as part of the Summer School is a one day Master Class about research methods for practitioners in the field of hand therapy, hand rehabilitation and hand surgery. Combining theory of medical research applied to upper extremity research.

Program

- 9.30 Opening and welcome
- 9.45 Emerging technologies and hand therapy; challenges in building evidence and innovation
Joy MacDermid (BSc, BScPT, MSc, PhD)
- 10.30 Defining and implementing a standard minimum outcome set for pediatric hand surgery and rehabilitation
Monique den Hollander-Ardon (PT, PhD)
- 11.00 Break
- 11.30 Clinical assessment of sensory impairment in the hand: an evidence update
Christina Jerosch-Herold (DipCOT, MSc, PhD)
- 12.15 Evidence based hand therapy outcome measures
Cigdem Oksuz (PT, PhD)
- 12.45 Lunch
- 13.45 Development and validation of a patient-reported outcome measures for hand nerve disorders – the I-HaND
Christina Jerosch-Herold
- 14.30 Collecting outcome data in clinical care; How to put the data to work
Ruud Selles (MSc, PhD)
- 15.00 Break
- 15.30 Measuring pain in hand therapy, beyond the VAS
Joy MacDermid
- 16.15 Guest speaker, soon to be announced
- 16.30 Discussions

Venue: Erasmus Medical Centre, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

Organization: Erasmus University, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine & Plastic Surgery

Course fee: € 225,- for the one day.

Registration and detailed information: www.handweb.nl/en/summer-school-2018/